ORAL JUDGEMENT

Learned advocate Mr. Pawankumar under instructions seeks permission to withdraw this petition so as to enable the petitioner to make a representation before the respondent authority. He further states that such a representation will be made within a period of fortnight from today. Learned advocate Mr. Chhaya appearing for the respondent Corporation states that a scheme is devised to accommodate certain persons who are affected and the case of the petitioner, upon representation, will be considered in light of the scheme framed within a period of four weeks after the receipt of the representation.

Under the circumstances, without entering into the merits of the controversy, permission is granted to withdraw this petition. Rule is discharged with no order as to costs.
